Purpose of association

(1) The non-profit, international purpose of the Association is, in its own name or in the name of its members or third parties, for its own account or for the account of members or third parties:

(A) To unite Junior Enterprises, confederated through National Confederations (regional structures, such as Federations, may be established under a National Confederations on a case by case basis) and Continental Confederations, promoting and encouraging intercultural and professional exchange between members of the JE movement (entities mentioned above), developing its level of professionalism and promoting the enlargement of the JE concept worldwide, as well as coordinate international collaboration and enlargement efforts between the members of the JE movement;

- (B) To promote the Junior Enterprise concept to companies, institutions, other international or regional associations, governing bodies, the media and general public;
- (C) To enhance cooperation of the JE movement with and integration of the JE concept into civil society, social partners and the formal as well as informal learning sector, to encourage engagement with members of the JE movement and students outside thereof, in order to generate a positive impact in society;
- (D) To represent the JE concept and global Network to international bodies, raising awareness and promoting meaningful partnerships with external organisations;
- (E) To develop a global Network, providing the resources, data, guidelines, structure and support to accelerate the development of the global members of the JE Movement;
- (F) To integrate the global Network by connecting its actors, promoting agreement on the nature and identity of the JE concept and setting standards to that effect, as well as fostering alignment on key-matters;
- (G) To foster among Members, Junior Enterprises and eventually all individual members of the global Network, entrepreneurial skills and a hands-on culture of economic empowerment, complementing formal learning with an entrepreneurial education, supporting academic teaching and learning, inspired by a learning-by-doing philosophy, including formal and informal education and learning outcomes;
- (H) To promote and guarantee inclusiveness for all Network members and stakeholders of the Association's worldwide;
- (I) To expand the JE movement to all continents worldwide and support/incept the creation of National Confederations as well as

Continental Confederations under the umbrella of JE Global;

- (J) To protect the unity of the global concept of Junior Entrepreneurship and support National Confederations as well as Continental Confederations in the effort of protecting the JE concept against misappropriation, misrepresentation and infringement.
